HEBBARD DECIDES FOR RAILROAD.

Says That the Court Can Inquire if the Oil Rates Are Fair.

WILL NOW TAKE UP THE EVIDENCE.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 17.—On December 2, 1901, the Railroad Commissioners adopted a schedule of oil rates to prevail in this State between points south of San Francisco. The Southern Pacific Company asked for an injunction preventing the Railroad Commission from enforcing the rates, on the ground that the rates established by the Commission would compel the railroad to operate at a loss.

Railroad Demurs.

The defendants filed a demurrer to the complaint of the Railroad Commission, alleging that the railroad had not stated sufficient reasons on which to base a cause for action, and alleged that the Court had no jurisdiction in the matter. In his decision Judge Hebbard says:

Decision of the Court.

"The single question of law is therefore before this Court for determination: has the Court jurisdiction to inquire into the reasonableness of the schedule of rates for the transportation of crude petroleum oil in the State of California, as fixed by the Board of Railroad Commissioners of this State, on the second day of December, 1901, and upon the solution of this question depends all of the rulings asked for by the other party."

What the Court Says.

Continuing, the Court said:

"I am of the opinion that this Court has full and complete jurisdiction over the persons to and the subject matter of this action and that the complaint, taken as confessed, for the purposes of the demurrer, presents a good and sufficient cause for action, and that the Court is unwarranted in taking such evidence as may be necessary to determine the issues made by the parties in their complaint and the answer filed thereto.

"The objection to the Court's jurisdiction is overruled.

"The demurrer is overruled.

"The motion to dissolve the temporary restraining order is denied."

BOILER STRIKE IS NOW AT AN END

Men Will Receive an Increase of Wages and Will Go Back to Work.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 17.—It was joyously announced at the Boilermakers' picnic yesterday at Shell Mound that Henry T. Scott had sent for the Executive Committee in order to arrange some sort of an agreement. It has been known that the Scotts have been for some time sorely pressed because of lack of boilermakers, and now they have been compelled to come forward and take the initiative in the negotiations toward a settlement.

The agreement entered into is in the nature of a compromise, the men claiming that, while they will work ten hours a day, the concessions granted them will mean an addition of about 50 cents per day to their salaries.

Business Manager Gildea has this to say of the satisfactory ending of the conflict:

"Yes, it has come at last. The men are to return to work as soon as places are found open for them. A majority will be at work in the morning, but a short delay may be necessary before the rest secure employment. We have fought and won.

"The men are to receive 35 cents an hour instead of 30 cents, as heretofore. They will be allowed time and a half for overtime. We are to work ten-hour days."

The men are more than jubilant at this turn of affairs. Many of them resumed work this morning, and they will all be taken back at the increased wage scale as fast as the works can displace the inferior help with which they have had to be satisfied during the past months.

POWER COMPANY IN THE NORTH

Absorbs an Old Company and Will Start Out With New Life.

REDDING, Cal., March 17.—The Northern California Power Company has been formed with a capital stock of $2,000,000 to absorb the Keswick Electric Power Company of this city, the Redding Water Company, the Redding Electric Light and Power Company and the Tehama County Electric Light Company of Red Bluff. The plant of the last named corporation was recently nearly ruined by fire, but the lines of wire are all in good shape. So announced H. H. Noble, who will be the president of the greater corporation, as he is now of the Keswick Power Company, which is really taking all the other companies into it under a new name.

SANTA FE WILL TELL COUNCIL OF ITS PLANS.

CAPTAIN PAYSON SAYS HE WILL MEET THE COUNCILMEN DURING THE WEEK —WANTS FAIR TREATMENT.

Captain A. H. Payson, representing the Santa Fe Company, is ready to meet the Council at any convenient time.

This morning he sent a telegram to Louis Schaffer, President of the Council, accepting the invitation to appear before the Council and requesting that a date be fixed for the meeting some time this week.

FAIR TREATMENT.

"I expect fair and generous treatment from the Council and the people of Oakland," said Captain Payson.

"I cannot state just how many or what trains will run into Oakland—that will have to be developed in the future. It is a matter of policy that cannot be stated now.

"We ask the people of Oakland to trust us, and in return we guarantee them fair treatment."

PAYSON'S TELEGRAM.

Captain Payson's telegram to Mr. Schaffer is as follows:

"San Francisco, March 17.—Louis Schaffer, President City Council, Oakland, Cal.: Your wire just received. Will be glad to meet the gentlemen of the Council in Oakland either Wednesday, Thursday or Friday evening of this week. Please let me know which of these three evenings would be most convenient.

"A. H. PAYSON."

WHAT SCHAFFER SAYS.

"I do not care to express any opinions till we have conferred with Captain Payson," said Councilman Schaffer. "I am anxious to have the Santa Fe come into Oakland, and stand ready to facilitate that consummation, but I also desire to serve the best interests of Oakland. President Ripley and Captain Payson speak fairly and appear to be willing to meet us above board, which is satisfactory thus far. I hope everything will continue so. However, we shall have a fuller light on the subject when we have heard what Captain Payson has to say. I think all the members of the Council are desirous of doing the right thing in this matter, but we will know better what to do and what to say when we know more. My feelings toward the Santa Fe are expressed in my original telegram to President Ripley."

The City Council will probably fix the time of the meeting at the session to be held tonight.

BRAVE LIFE SAVERS GO DOWN IN AN EFFORT TO GIVE HELP.

CHATHAM, Mass., March 17.—Seven members of the crew of the Monomoy Life Saving Station, including the captain, were drowned today while trying to reach a distressed barge in a terrific sea. One boatman, Surfman Ellis, was rescued by a sailor from the barge, which had summoned the life savers to her assistance. He was unconscious for hours, so that the details of the disaster could not be learned.

The men who perished are:

Captain Marshall Elridge, South Chatham.
Edgar Small.
Elijah Kendrick.
Osborne Chase.
Valentine Nickerson, all of Harwich.
Arthur Rogers, North Harwich.
Thomas Foye, South Chatham.

All the men were married and had families.

Five members of the crew of the barge Wardena, in addition to the seven members of the life saving crew, were lost by the capsizing of the surf boat of the Monomoy station.

Surfman Ellis, on regaining consciousness, made known the fact that the lifeboat had reached the barge Wardena, and had taken on board five persons from the barge and was returning to the shore when it capsized.

Those five men were lost in addition to the crew, making twelve in all who perished.

RAILROAD COMPANY WILL DO AWAY WITH FIRST STREET TRESTLE

The railroad company has commenced operations on the trestle at the point where it crosses the outlet of Lake Merritt on First street. It is the intention of the company to make a solid embankment for 100 feet on the west side and 400 feet on the east side of the trestle. This will require many car loads of dirt as the creek bottom is very soft and the dirt dumped there soon sinks out of sight. The railroad company get this dirt from the estuary which they are excavating. The work is being rapidly pushed through as the company is under obligation to pay $50 an hour for the time they spend in cutting out the estuary.

Large culverts will be built to permit the tide to take its usual course.

The men employed on the work witnessed a most brilliant electrical display Saturday. In unloading some of the dirt from the cars, it fell in such a way as to cause the wires of the electric company to become crossed. Then for a space of several minutes was seen the grandest display of fireworks seen for a long time. The flame shot up into the air for twenty feet and turned every imaginable color. The effect was spoiled by its occurring in the daytime.

The piles in the creek belonging to Pope and Talbot of San Francisco will remain where they are, as they do not interfere with building the embankment.

ANONYMOUS CIRCULAR MAKES ATTACK ON PRESIDENT WHEELER.

BERKELEY, March 17.—Anonymous circulars attacking President Benjamin Ide Wheeler, were distributed about the University grounds this morning. Under the caption of "Ben Jim Ide," the circulars charged that President Wheeler is greatly overpaid while the other members of the faculty are greatly underpaid. They recite that he is an Eastern aristocrat who is exploiting his position for his own benefit, and that he has no sympathy with the traditions of the University nor with the policy on which it has hitherto been conducted.

Beyond criticizing President Wheeler's ability and asserting that he is drawing a salary far in excess of his deserts, the circulars make no derogatory statements concerning him.

The appearance of the circular set the University set to talking at a lively rate, and it cropped out that there are smouldering grievances in the scholarly precincts. The circulars were gathered up with great eagerness, and in a little while it was difficult to find one. Those who got them would not acknowledge having them in their possession, while those that fell into other hands were promptly destroyed.

There is much speculation as to the authorship of these circulars. Inquiry develops that they put into words what many of the older residents of Berkeley feel.

DEFENSE IN MURDER CASE.

Stockton Man Says He Did Not Beat Woman to Death.

STOCKTON, Cal., Mar. 17.—The line of defense in the case of George Gribble, charged with beating to death Mrs. Lena Young, his paramour, on the night of December 20th last, was disclosed today by the evidence of Sheriff Sibley, a witness for the prosecution. Gribble made a volunteer statement to the Sheriff in which he said that the woman came home after he had retired and that she was bleeding badly from the nose and mouth. He undressed her and put her to bed. She managed to squirm or wriggle out of bed several times, but he placed her back each time. She finally died in his arms. In subsequent statements he said the woman pitched out of bed head first several times, pulling her hair out as she did so. He also stated that when the woman came home she had a towel under her chin. Gribble made no statement accounting for the absence of blood upon the bedclothing.

WOMAN HAS CLOSE CALL.

Engineer Cheered For Saving Mrs. Mary Ludlow's Life.

Mrs. Mary Ludlow came within an ace of being crushed to death at 1:38 this afternoon.

She stood on the track at Seventh and Broadway and did not notice the approach of the west-bound train.

The engineer saw the danger and pulled the whistle a dozen times.

Mrs. Ludlow did not move. Everybody waited for her to be cut down.

Engineer Clark was equal to the occasion. He stopped the engine just as the cow catcher touched the hem of the woman's garment.

The crowd applauded the engineer.

Officer Frank Lynch took the woman home.

DELANEY ROASTS BOB FITZSIMMONS.

Says the Fighter is Naturally Mean and Wants to Prevent Battle.

TALK OVER THE LONG DISTANCE WIRE.

The stubborn, tenacious spirit of Bob Fitzsimmons, whether acting at the impulse of cowardice or a foxey brain, and the desire to capture as much of the emoluments of his own engagement in the ring as possible, is raising havoc with the plans for his agreement to fight Jeffries, and clubs with bids for the fight on deposit in the Examiner and Journal office. Last night about 9 o'clock Coast time and 12 o'clock New York time, Billy Delaney of Oakland succeeded in getting Fitzsimmons on the Journal end of the leased wire running into the Examiner office and had a half hour's chat with the ex-champion, but after the talk Delaney did not know any more of Fitzsimmens' intentions than before the conversation started.

"What did he say?" Delaney was asked this morning.

"Say! Why he said a little about everything except the subject we wanted to talk over. When a discussion of the bids offered by Los Angeles and the clubs from San Francisco was touched he said he wanted until April 1 to decide a question that needed less than the time we were talking to settle. Finally, when I reminded him that he set the day for opening the bids and selecting the best offer, he deliberately shut off the conversation and left me practically in the dark. I tried to think out something sensible that he said during that half hour of telegraphing, which would have been a novelty for me if the matter in hand was not so serious, but for the life of me I could not think out a single sentence that was not directly in line with the trouble others have had with him in Texas, Hot Springs and elsewhere.

"I know the Los Angeles Club will not continue their offer, and I don't think the San Francisco clubs will care to leave an offer open for such an important event to the last minute, and I would not be surprised any moment to hear from Jeff. that the whole thing is off."

Speaking of the close relationship in a friendly way existing between Jim Kennedy, the promoter, and Fitzsimmons, Delaney said Kennedy was entitled to anything he could get out of the fight because he worked hard to bring about a meeting between the two big boxers, but he was not in a position to say whether Fitzsimmons' latest action was taken to favor Kennedy.

"Fitz is not favoring anybody," said Delaney. "He is naturally mean, and in my opinion wishes to crawl out of this fight."

RAILROAD MEN ARE COMING HERE

President E. H. Harriman Will Meet Eastern Men in San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 17.—By the time President E. H. Harriman of the Southern Pacific Company reaches here the city will be entertaining a large number of prominent representatives of the big American railroads. Over a dozen of presidents, vice-presidents, general managers and other notable railroad officials are now in the South, where they expect to remain until Mr. Harriman crosses the State line and starts north for this city. Then they will begin moving northward. Among them are Percival W. Clement, president of the Rutland Railroad; E. W. Midaugh, general solicitor of the Grand Trunk system; W. Seward Webb, who controls a large block of stock of the Vanderbilt roads, and E. Van Etten, vice-president of the New York Central, who was to have been here a week ago, but has decided to prolong his stay in the South until the other officials come here.

W. B. Jerome, general Western agent of the Vanderbilt lines, has been in the South for several days, and was to have visited San Francisco, but changed his plans and left Los Angeles this morning for the East. Carleton C. Crane, local agent of the Vanderbilt system, was with Mr. Jerome in Los Angeles, whither he was called to assist in the selection of new offices for the company. Mr. Crane returned to the city last night.

ASUNCION HAD HARD TRIP HOME

SAN FRANCISCO, Mar. 17.—The Asuncion, which arrived here this morning after a tempestuous voyage of five days and eight hours from Tacoma, came within an ace of being added to the list of steam colliers that have been lost off the north coast.

The Asuncion was in just such a storm as sent the Matteawan to the bottom with thirty souls off Cape Flattery several months ago. She was not as heavily laden as the Matteawan, and this fact saved her from the fate of her sister ship.

With 3,000 tons of coal, consigned to R. D. Chandler, the Asuncion left Tacoma March 11. Off Flattery she run into a heavy southeast gale, accompanied by a heavy sea. Captain Evans turned his ship back toward the straits and found storm signals hoisted at Neah Bay station. He attempted to find shelter at Chattam Bay, but found the harbor crowded with sailing craft, and was forced to run for Port Angeles, where an anchorage was found.

The Asuncion proceeded on the morning of the 13th, the storm signals having been withdrawn. By midnight the wind had increased to a heavy gale.

STATE GIVES UP BATTLE AT ALTURAS.

No Chance to Convict the Lynchers in the Lookout Case.

NINETEEN MEN ARE GIVEN FREEDOM.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 17.—Nineteen men accused of participating in the quintuple lynching at Lookout, Modoc county, on May 31st last, will be liberated today at Alturas. Attorney-General Tirey L. Ford has consented to the dismissal of the defendants, as the State laws are ineffective to convict the alleged murderers.

Assistant Attorney-General C. N. Post and Deputies Sturtevant and Moore have been endeavoring for ten days to find some law that would justify further prosecution of the lynching cases, but they were forced to the conclusion that it would be a useless waste of time and money.

ACQUITTAL OF JIM BROWN.

The acquittal of Deputy Constable Jim Brown convinces the State's Attorney that another trial would result in the same way even if a jury could be obtained in Modoc county.

STATE IS HELPLESS.

Judge J. Harrington has been advised that the State is helpless in the matter of applying for a change of venue, and of the futility of proceeding any further against the defendants.

Attorney-General Ford has suggested remedial statutes to Governor Gage, where the matter must rest until the Legislature convenes.

MEN TO BE RELEASED.

The men who will be released by Judge Harrington today, all of whom were charged with five murders, are Deputy Constable James W. Brown, Justice of the Peace J. R. Myers, Robert Leventon, Isom Eades, E. S. Trobridge, Orrin Trowbridge, Jervis Kresge, Claude Marcus, R. D. Nichols, Fred Roberts, Harry Roberts, A. L. Colburn, William J. McDaniels, Henry Knox, Sam Parks, Louis Polmantier, John J. Potter, Joseph W. Leventon.

Claude Brown and John Hutton, the two young men who confessed that they were members of the mob and inculpaled the nineteen others, have been brought out of Modoc county by the State authorities.

SPRAY OF SHAMROCK SEEN IN HOUSE

River and Harbor Bill Is Being Discussed by Members.

WASHINGTON, March 17.—Sprays of Shamrock, in commemoration of St. Patrick's Day, graced the lapels of the coats of half of the members when the House met today. Immediately after the approval of the Journal the House went into Committee of the Whole and commenced the consideration of the River and Harbor bill.

Mr. Burton of Ohio, who was in charge of the measure, in his opening statement, said he would not discuss the benefits to the commerce and Senate appropriations contained in the bill, but would confine himself at some length to discussing some poular misapprehensions with reference to it. In the first place, he said, the impression expressed that the bill carried something over $60,000,000 for the ensuing fiscal year, where as it carried but $24,000,000 of actual appropriations, the remaining $36,000,000 being simply authorized to be appropriated under the contract system. There was also, he said, a mistaken idea that the pending measure carried larger appropriations than any previous bill.

CHARGES MADE AGAINST POSTMASTER

CHICAGO, March 17.—Charges have been filed with the Civil Service Commission against Postmaster F. E. Coyne of Chicago, alleging that he has made changes in the Chicago Postoffice for political reasons. The complaint is made by T. W. Wittler, formerly Superintendent of a station of the Chicago Postoffice, who specifies that he was reduced from that position, paying $2,000 per annum, to mailing clerk at $1,100, and that on refusing to accept the change he was dismissed. He says this action was due to his being a Democrat.

WHY THE RED CROSS LADIES FEEL INSULTED.

OAKLAND, SAN JOSE, SACRAMENTO AND STOCKTON WERE NOT ON THE MAP AT THE STATE RE-UNION.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 17.—Considerable indignation is being expressed among the Red Cross ladies from the interior by the way they were made to play tag, as they claim, to the San Francisco Society at the rally held last Saturday.

This was intended to be a sort of field day for all the Red Cross Societies of the State, for the promotion of Red Cross work.

Why There Is a Roar.

It was called under the auspices of Mrs. W. B. Harrington, who is president of the State organization. All the societies of the State were invited to participate, but when the members of the interior societies met they found that the San Francisco Society had usurped all the honors of the occasion.

The rally was held in the nave of the Ferry building, which was beautifully decorated with flowers and studded with tables laden with good things. But all this failed to still the feelings that were aroused in the ladies from the outside every time they looked at the programs. There were delegations from the Red Cross Societies of Sacramento, San Jose, Sausalito, Oakland and Corvallis, Oregon, and they contributed their money as well as their presence. The San Jose Society sent fifty dollars to the purse that was raised, and all the other societies contributed to the refreshments and the fund.

Where Oakland Was Slapped.

Mrs. Isaac L. Requa headed the delegation from Oakland, which consisted of a large number of society ladies. As the rally was called under the auspices of the State organization, under direction of Mrs. W. B. Harrington, they deemed that all the societies were equal participants in the affair. They had no thought that it was local to San Francisco.

Imagine their surprise to find that the program represented the affair to have been called under the auspices of the San Francisco Society. The name of Mrs. John F. Merrill, president of the San Francisco Society, held the place of honor instead of the name of Mrs. Harrington. To say that the ladies from abroad were indignant is drawing it mild.

Being Ladies, They Did Not Talk Much

Being ladies, they did not talk much for the general public, but among themselves they did not hesitate to say that it was a shabby trick to exalt the San Francisco branch at the expense of the others. So much has been said that those responsible for getting up the programs have been compelled to make explanation. Mrs. Merrill has felt it incumbent upon her to deny any intent to usurp the prerogatives of the State President, but the explanations are scarcely satisfactory to the aggrieved ones, who think a most unfair advantage has been taken of them. It seems that the matter of getting up the program was left to the members of the San Francisco Society, and the result was that it gave out the impression that the affair was arranged by the San Francisco Society alone.

Only a Mistake, You Know.

Mrs. Merrill disclaims having connived at having herself billed as the presiding genius of the event. "It was all a mistake, you know."

But the social wounds are deep, and the Red Cross ladies will have a good deal of healing to do in their own ranks before harmony is finally restored.

The fact that Oakland gave a large share to the show; that San Jose gave $50; that Sacramento sent a delegation, did not cut any ice.

EMBASSADOR SAYS CHARGES ARE FALSE

Representative in Mexico Sends a Telegram to Department.

WASHINGTON, Mar. 17.—A telegram has been received by Secretary Hay from Powell Clayton, Embassador to Mexico, declaring that the charges against him connecting his name with the ownership of Mexican mining stock are false.

It is said at the Department that there is nothing in the law or regulations to prevent a Minister or Embassador from holding stock or even engaging in business in the country to which he is accredited. It is further stated at the Department, that this an important bearing upon the charges preferred against Embassador Clayton, that in every step taken by him in the Mealey case he has acted with the approval and in most cases by the direction of the Department.

ELIZABETH, N. J., Mar. 17.—An attempt was made to kill the Rev. Mr. Horst, pastor of the German Lutheran Church of this place, last night. The police believe that the would-be assassins were Italian anarchists. After the shooting of President McKinley, Mr. Horst preached a sermon in which he denounced the anarchists and declared that they should be driven from the country. On November 27th last his son mysteriously disappeared and the Minister subsequently received threatening letters in which it was said that the boy was in hell and that the father also would be sent there. Some weeks ago his little daughter was met on the street by a young man, who tried to entice her into a house, but she began to cry, attracting the attention of passers-by and the man took fright and hurried away.

Last night Mr. Horst heard steps on the porch of his home and he went out to investigate. As he did so, he was knocked down by a blow on the head with a blunt instrument. While he was prostrate one of his assailants kneeled on his chest, threw a cloth over his face and shoved it into his mouth as a gag, with one hand, while with the other he drove a knife into the minister's chest, inflicting a deep chest wound. The wounded man was found by his wife and a physician was called. He found the knife wound was slight, but that the blow on the head had caused serious injury. There is no clew to the assailants.

TWO FINE PICTURES BY W. W. ARMSTRONG.

There is on exhibition at the store of Wiley B. Allen, at Ninth and Broadway, two oil painting, which are exciting the attention and receiving the approval of every passer. One is an artistic reproduction of the Rhine Falls in Germany and the other is an excellent representation of Dunraven Castle in Ireland. Both are the work of W. W. Armstrong, the well-known artist of this city. In the view of the falls, the artist has cleverly reproduced the rush and fury of the falling waters and the boiling, bubbling of the flood as it recovers from the effects of the fall preparatory to starting on its career down the majestic stream.

Dunraven Castle is the warmer of the two pieces, because it has all the color of land and sea under the influence of the light of day. The castle occupies an eminence and is visible through a mist, which is cleverly depicted. Below, the castle there is an angry sea in the breakers of which there are sailing craft buffeting the billows in a very sturdy manner. The artist has a genius for the accurate reproduction of marine views, a fact which is attested by the pictures under consideration. Several flattering offers have been received for them and there is no doubt that they will bring a handsome sum to the skillful artist.

GEN. BARNES IS VERY ILL.

Had Operation Performed on His Throat Yesterday Afternoon.

SAN FRANCISCO, Mar. 17.—General William H. L. Barnes, the distinguished lawyer and orator, is confined to his bed at the California Hotel, where yesterday, after a week of suffering, he submitted to an operation of the throat.

General Barnes had been complaining for some time of an annoying affection of the throat, which his medical attendants finally attributed to a small but growing abscess near the root of the tongue. It troubled him continually until Friday, when he was compelled to take to his bed. Yesterday morning his condition was such that immediate service of the surgeons was demanded, and in the afternoon they attacked the seat of trouble and removed the abscess.

The General will be confined to his bed for some time.

HE TRIED BEATING AS A LOVE POTION

Joseph K. Dickenson, the West Oakland colored saloon keeper, who achieved considerable notoriety two months ago on account of the crusade against his place of business, was today arrested for frightfully beating Mrs. A. Maddock, a very pretty octoroon, in her apartments, corner of Thirteenth and Washington streets.

The cause of the trouble was unrequited love. According to the story Mrs. Maddock tells, Dickenson called on her this morning and met her in the hallway. She claims not to have seen him for three months and granted his request for an interview without hesitation.

She conducted him to her room and the moment the door was closed she says Dickenson began to beat her. Her screams attracted the attention of the other rooms, who came to her rescue.

Dickenson then ran, but was overtaken and arrested by Patrolman Nick Williams.

The woman says that she told Dickenson that she was unable to return his affection as he was a married man and that this angered him.

Dickenson's act was so apparently unprovoked that on the suggestion of Prosecuting Attorney Leach bail was fixed at $250 cash.

MANY FAMILIES LOSE THEIR HOMES.

CHICAGO, March 17.—Twenty-four families occupying the St. Catherine Flats at Fortieth street and Grand Boulevard were driven from the building early today by fire. A frigid wind was blowing and the firemen had to work vigorously to confine the flames to the St. Catherine structure. The tenants had barely time to escape, and shivered in the cold until neighbors were aroused and gave them shelter. Their personal effects were lost.

Wm. Scanlon, a policeman, fell from a third-story window and broke one of his legs. George Patten, one of the tenants, proved himself a hero. Three women were penned in on the third floor. Patton had reached them before the flames blocked the stairway. He made a rope of bed sheets and let the women down the elevator shaft by means of it. He then fastened it and attempted to slide down after them. The makeshift rope gave way, however, and he sustained a broken ankle. Firemen rescued him. The total loss was $60,000.

RECOUNT IN SAN FRANCISCO

Contest is Closed and Much Interest is Taken in Matter.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 17.—The continued losses of the labor candidates in the Supervisorial recount begins to lend an interest to the contest, which has hitherto been one-sided. Should the ratio of gain and loss of the past week continue to the end of the recount, Alpers and Eggers would overcome the lead of Walsh and Coghlan and retain their seats. In five precincts counted this morning, Alpers lost 23, Bent 20, Eggers 21, Wilson 18, Coghlan 38, Reagan 33, Walsh 36 and Finn 39 votes. The precincts counted were the seventh of the Twenty-ninth district, the ninth and thirteenth of the Thirty-second and the fifth and sixth of the Twenty-eighth district. Regarding the attendance of girls at the universities, the Minister said the Government failed to see that there was any universal need of academic studies for girls. Therefore, it adhered to its decision that they should only be added to universities as guests. The Government, however, was of the opinion that in order to maintain the idealistic position of German women in the home, the instruction of girls in the schools should accord more closely with the requirements of the present time.

"We did not rob this fellow Douglass," said Frank Burnett, one of the lads, whose story is corroborated by the others, "but we licked him for attacking Miss Silva, a young lady who lives here.

"We were standing near Estudillo avenue together when Miss Silva rushed over to us and told us that Douglass had attempted to assault her as she was walking home. We hurried and overtook the man and gave him a good licking, which he deserved."

The arrest was made on a warrant from San Francisco charging Eichorn with disturbing the peace. He had given bonds but fled before his trial was set.

He was located in this city, and Policemen Drew and Hunley were detailed to arrest him. When he saw the officers he made a dash for liberty.

A civilian attempted to stop him, but was knocked down for his pains. Eichorn jumped a number of fences, but was finally run down many blocks from the first scene of action. He did not submit kindly to arrest and gave the two peace officers a hard struggle before he was subdued.

He was sent back to San Francisco this morning.

SCHAFFER WILL BE RE-ELECTED.

THERE WILL BE LITTLE CHANGE IN THE COUNCIL COMMITTEES.

Louis Schaffer will be re-elected President when the Council re-organizes for the next year. The majority have decided upon that, although Mr. Schaffer had signified a desire to give way to some one else.

There will probably be no opposition as the minority find him an acceptable presiding officer. Therefore Schaffer's election is likely to be by unanimous vote. No member of the majority desires to take his place.

It is conceded that Mr. Schaffer has made an excellent presiding officer. His rulings are so fair that no member has ever been heard to complain. His rulings have never been appealed from, and the members of the minority cheerfully admit that he has treated them with uniform courtesy and consideration.

There will be a little change in the make-up of the committees. The changes made will be of minor importance. The chairmanship of the principal committees will remain as at present, in all probability. Courtney will stay at the head of the Finance Committee, Wixson at the head of the Street Committee and Boyer at the head of the License Committee.

It is expected that four important municipal improvements will be carried out during the coming fiscal year, not including the Adeline street sewer. They are: Reconstruction of San Pablo avenue, extension of Harrison street from Twenty-first street to Boulevard Terrace, grading and completing Commerce street and rebuilding the Twelfth street dam. This last is considered the most important and necessary work of any of the contemplated improvements.

INSIDE NEWS OF FIGHT BIDS.

How the Los Angeles Boys Gave 'Frisco Lads a Fright.

COMBINE ROUTED.

Messrs. Morley, McClarey and Brink Drop a Shell Among Fight Promoters.

Messrs. Morley, McCarey and Brink of Los Angeles, who own most of the stock of the Century Club, were on the firing line Saturday and they succeeded in landing a shell in the midst of the conspirators who make up the "fighting combine" across the bay that scattered plans, theories and obstacles in every direction. The shell burst in the Examiner office, where the bids for the Jeffries-Fitzsimmons fight were opened Saturday evening, and the missile was aimed at the big fight. The "combine" was taken completely by surprise, but had enough presence of mind and influence with the fighters to secure an armistice, and the bids were laid aside until Fitz and Jeff could confer by long distance telegraph. The plucky men from the big southern city acted like men of business throughout the transaction and were perfectly satisfied to give all concerned time to think and talk over the proposition.

It was stated in these columns several days ago that so far as possible it was fixed for the Yosemite Club to get the fight. Since the publication of that story the plans were changed to allow the San Francisco Club, which is the Yosemite Club now in everything save the name, to put in the largest bid. Big Jim Kennedy of New York, who promoted the Yosemite Club and amalgamated it with the San Francisco Club, is a close personal friend of Bob Fitzsimmons, and it was he who brought the Cornishman to an agreement with Jeffries to fight again and it was he who managed from New York the transfer of bids from the Yosemite and San Francisco Clubs to the Examiner and Journal offices. He calculated that the rival clubs of San Francisco would not comply with the strict reading of the terms calling for the bids and his judgment was serene. Not one of the clubs of San Francisco outside of the Yosemite and San Francisco posted a guarantee with their bids. That alone disqualified all of them and the way was clear to award the contest to the San Francisco Club, but at that moment the shell from Los Angeles dropped into the Examiner office and caused a postponement, probably until April 1st.

BUSINESS-LIKE OFFER FROM LOS ANGELES.

When the bids were opened it was seen that the Yosemite Club bid 66 2-3 per cent and deposited $2,500 in New York as a guarantee of good faith. The San Francisco Club bid 70 per cent and also deposited $2,500. The other clubs across the bay entered bids without guarantees, contrary to all business usages and the terms mapped out for entering the bids. When the letter from Los Angeles was opened it presented a business front that could not be denied. It offered three distinct propositions as follows: First, a purse of $25,000 in cash, now on deposit in the Citizens' Bank in Los Angeles; second, 70 per cent of the gross receipts, with a guarantee of $20,000; third, 75 per cent of the gross receipts, flat. The bid had a certified check for $5,000 attached and struck everybody present with its business air and lavish offering.

The gentlemen from Los Angeles are well able to do all they promise. They have the confidence and respect of the business men of their city, who will contribute liberally within reason toward the purse for business reasons and the love of their own town, and they will not have to depend entirely on the gate receipts. The Chutes is a splendid arena convenient to the heart of the town, where the fight could take place, and in such a place the general price of admission could be placed within the means of all and attract a crowd the equal of any ever seen at a fight. Los Angeles has turned out as many as 15,000 people to see a trotting event. Why could not as many be persuaded to see a fight at popular prices—say, two, five and ten dollars. That is what the promoters have in mind, and the Chutes is large enough to accommodate such a crowd.

This town would lose nothing by the success of the Los Angeles promoters except the chance to see the fight near home. Those who could not afford the trip south could be entertained by one of our local clubs with a good boxing show where bulletins from the ringside could be read after each round. Such a show would attract a large crowd from across the bay and all the money that would otherwise find its way to San Francisco that night would find circulation here and remain here. The Reliance Club is already out with an announcement to give an entertainment that night in the event of the contest going south.

WEST OAKLAND CLUB.

Thursday, March 20, is the evening set by the managers of the West Oakland Club for its next gentlemen's night, and an excellent card of four and six round events is offered the club members and their friends. All the contestants, twelve in number, are in excellent condition and training faithfully for their engagements.

The main event will be between J. Brock and C. McManus, both of the Reliance Club, and will settle an old dispute between the two regarding their merits as boxers. This contest will be preceded by several well matched four round contests. Boxing begins at 8:30 sharp. Tickets for reserved seats will be placed on sale at Bercovich's Tuesday.

RELIANCE CLUB.

McFadden Training Harder Than Ever For His Contest With Snailham.

Followers of the flatic game have a treat in store for them in the McFadden-Snailham contest, which is to take place at the Reliance Club Tuesday evening, March 25th. For several years Kid McFadden has been the king-pin in the feather-weight division of Pacific Coast boxers. There was a time a few months ago when in order to get a contest he was compelled to give away weight to some of the good men at 122 pounds. Having disposed of these men he became careless and refused to train for a bout, as he had no difficulty in making the weight. The result was that he was caught napping by that clever boxer Spider Welch, who gave the Red Top a severe beating in a ten round go at Mechanics' Pavilion recently. Now Snailham, who has a decision as an amateur over Welch, wants a try with the Coast champion, as he thinks if Welch could put it on McFadden he should be able to do likewise. This is a match the followers of the game have been asking for these many days, for in Snailham they think they have a man who will fight the Kid in his own style and beat him to it. While McFadden is always a great card for any club, because people know they are always sure to see a fight, there are hundreds who always attend when the Kid is on, hoping to be on the spot when Dennie gets his "block knocked off," to use a ring expression. It is doubtful if there was ever a fighter on this coast who is as heartily disliked yet has a large following of friends as is McFadden.

Alec Greggains, who is preparing Snailham for the coming go, predicts that Billy will be there all the time. The boy from south of the slot is just such a boxer as people want to see tackle the Kid. He is a clever boxer with a good punch in either hand as well as a glutton for punishment. Anyone can hit McFadden, but the trouble with the majority of those who have gone against him is that they have not been able to keep up the pace he sets. Snailham can take as hard a beating as can McFadden and at the same time give back as good as he gets. Of the two Snailham is the better boxer, therefore those who have been anxiously waiting for the Kid to get his quietus will in all probability have their long wish fulfilled on the evening of March 25th.

TURF TOPICS.

Siddons Captures the Valuable Thornton Stakes Easily by Fifty Lengths.

Before the horses started for the post in the valuable Thornton stakes, distance four miles, decided at Emeryville Saturday, the betting indicated that there would be a sharp contest between at least two of the three starters. Both Lizella and Siddons were practically made equal choices in the betting, and not until the bugle called the horses to parade was Siddons settled on as a pronounced favorite at a price a little less than even money.

The race resulted in no contest at all. Before going a mile the saddle slipped on Lizella and O'Connor's efforts after that mishap were ludicrous. He sat up high almost on the mare's neck and had hard work keeping on her back. Bangor sulked when the time came for earnest effort, and Siddons had only to gallop at his own gait to win as far as his jockey desired, which was about fifty lengths.

Winnie O'Connor, the crack jockey, who was easily the best rider in the saddle here this winter, left Saturday evening for the East, accompanied by Mr. Arthur Featherstone, his employer, and Julius Bauer, who trains for the stable. O'Connor's departure leaves the local field of jockeys without any real star. Jackson and Ransch are both riding in excellent form, but they are a long way from O'Connor's class.

Troxler, who came here weak and almost sick, has fully recovered his health and is riding with good judgment and skill. It will not be surprising if Troxler proves from now to the end of the season that he is one of the best saddle artists we have here.

Another boy who is showing marked improvement in his work is Stuart, who rides for Chappell. He has won a couple of races with Tuffts and one with Grand Sachem, and in each race showed good saddle work. From now to the end of the season the jockeys looking for a future in their calling will be given plenty opportunity.

EXCITING FIELD DAY.

Oakland and High School Boys Play Like College Men and Gain Victory.

The youngsters of the Oakland High School who participated in the semi-annual field day of the Bay Counties Athletic League, which was held at Berkeley Saturday, handled themselves in a manner that would have done credit to college teams and players older in years and experience. Never in the history of the field day contests has there been a closer or more exciting play. Records were scattered and shattered and between Oakland and Berkeley there was no winner until Oakland's last effort, when Hinds, in his last throw, hurled the hammer far beyond the Berkeley weight tosser's best, and the day was won for the plucky boys of the Oakland High School.

The final score was Oakland 61, Berkeley 54, Lowell 19 and the California School of Mechanical Arts 9. The Mission High School failed to win a point and the Polytechnic was not represented.

BASKET BALL GAMES.

Athens defeated the Spartans in the last game played for the State championship, and the close of the season is near at hand with the San Francisco team and Athens tied. The team across the bay has been defeated by Athens and as it has a few more games to play it is liable to lose its tie and leave Athens champions of this year's tournament. Tonight will tell the tale. San Francisco meets the University of California in the gymnasium, and the result will practically decide whether Athens will take first place or a series of games be arranged with San Francisco to decide the matter. If the University boys win that will end the tournament.

BASEBALL GAME.

A game of baseball between teams from Abrahamson Bros. and Taft & Pennoyer took place Sunday, resulting in a victory for the former by a score of 6 to 4. A feature of the game was the fielding of L. Reed and the pitching of Mr. Denry of the Abrahamsons. Another game will be played in the near future.

WILL PROTEST AGAINST SALOON.

FRUITVALE CITIZENS HOLD MEETING AND ADOPT RESOLUTIONS.

A mass meeting was held in the Methodist Church on Hopkins street in Upper Fruitvale yesterday to take action against the proposed granting of a saloon license to P. C. Neilson by the Board of Supervisors.

The following resolution was unanimously adopted:

"Resolved, That it is the sense of the residents of Fruitvale, as here represented, that there be no saloons in Dimond, and that we appeal to the Board of Supervisors not to grant any licenses to sell liquor in this place. At the same time, we desire to avoid contention, if possible, and appeal to those who are selling liquor and to those who expect to apply for licenses, to consider the great injury to many through the traffic in drink, and to respect the wishes of the large number of residents here who are opposed to the business; and, therefore, be it

Resolved, That a committee be appointed to wait on the saloon-keepers and others concerned to endeavor to persuade them to respect the wishes of this community.

The committee appointed to wait on the saloon-keepers consists of Rev. C. G. Milnes, Rev. F. Rheda, G. H. Baker, and Mrs. C. A. Nichols.

A protest to be presented to the Board of Supervisors when P. C. Neilson renews his application for a license was signed by those present at the meeting.

The meeting was led by Rev. C. G. Milnes, pastor of the church. Addresses were made by Rev. F. Rhoda, L. M. Hartley, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, Rev. J. M. Alexander, chairman of the central committee appointed last Thursday by twenty-seven churches to take action toward suppressing the liquor traffic: J. L. Lyon, Rev. L. L. Abbott, and F. F. Fish.

Our niece, who had Consumption in an advanced stage, also used this wonderful medicine, and today she is perfectly well." ROBBER SHOOTS AT MRS. OLSON

Mrs. Elias Olson, who resides at 580 Third street, where her husband runs a saloon, narrowly escaped death last night at the hands of a masked highwayman, who fired a shot at her through extreme nervousness, it is believed. The bullet passed within five inches of the woman's head and imbedded itself in the wall of the saloon.

Mrs. Olson says she left the room for a few moments and that on returning she was confronted by the masked man, who held her at bay with a cocked pistol. The appearance of the woman's husband caused the robber to fire the revolver and then run.

When the police arrived, Mrs. Olson fainted.

BROKE TWO RIBS AND LACERATED CHEEK

Edward Arndt, a cook, residing at 312 Fifth street, fell fifteen feet yesterday from a ladder and sustained two fractured ribs and a lacerated cheek. He was treated at the Receiving Hospital.

Tired Stomachs

Show Little Evidence of Real Disease—They Have Simply Been Overworked and are Tired, Fagged, Played-Out, Exhausted.

Don't try to whip them to greater exertion with stimulants, condiments and spices. Such treatment will only leave them worse in the end.

The proper treatment is something to help digest the food and give the stomach needed rest and at the same time tone up and energize the exhausted organ.

There is one remedy that will do this. It is convenient, safe, cheap, reliable and satisfactory. Once used, the dyspeptic is its advocate and friend. It can be bought at any drug store for fifty cents a box; call for Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and you have it.

Mrs. G. H. Crotsley, 638 Washington St., Hoboken, New Jersey, writes: "Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets just fill the bill for children as well as for older folks. I've had the best of luck with them. My three-year-old girl takes them as readily as candy. I have only to say 'tablets' and she drops everything else and runs for them."

Miss Lelia Dively, 4627 Plummer St., Pittsburg, Pa., writes: "I wish everyone to know how grateful I am for Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. I suffered for a long time and did not know what ailed me. I lost flesh right along until one day I noticed an advertisement of these tablets and immediately bought a 50 cent box at the drug store. I am only on the second box and am gaining in flesh and color. I have at last found something that has reached my ailment."

From Mrs. Del. Eldred, Sun Prairie, Wis., "I was taken dizzy very suddenly during the hot weather of the past summer. After ten days of constant dizziness I went to our local physician, who said my liver was torpid and I had over heated my blood; he doctored me for two weeks without much improvement; I finally thought of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets (which I had used long before for various bad feelings) and the first three tablets helped me.

They are easily the best all around family medicine I ever used."

Mr. N. J. Booher, Chicago, Ill., writes: "Catarrh is a local condition resulting from a neglected cold in the head, whereby the lining membrane of the nose becomes inflamed and the poisonous discharge therefrom passing backward into the throat reaches the stomach, thus producing catarrh of the stomach. Medical authorities prescribed for me for three years for catarrh of stomach without cure, but today I am the happiest of men after using only one box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. I cannot find appropriate words to express my good feeling. I have found flesh, appetite and sound rest from their use."

The Health of a Manly Man

Why will not all men insist upon having it, when it is so easy to get and to keep. Some men are eaten alive by tape-worms, others wander hopelessly for years dying slow deaths from bowel disease.

"After taking two Cascarets, there came on the scene a very unexpected visitor in the shape of a tape-worm eighteen feet long at least, which I am sure caused my bad health for three years."
—Geo. W. Bowles, Baird, Miss.

"After taking Cascarets I have had a natural relief without taking medicine of any sort during the past two weeks. This had not occurred for 18 years."
—Chas. E. Penny, 601 Yates Ave., Brooklyn.

"For three years I have been afflicted with diabetes. Since using Cascarets I have found great relief and feel that I must send you my personal recommendation."
—C. H. Lyman, 813 West Ave., Buffalo, N. Y.

"I have been using Cascarets for stomach trouble of six years standing. I am cured and recommend them to all who need a remedy."
—Rev. E. M. Chandler, Mill P. O., Mo.

"Cascarets cured me of the piles, with which I had long suffered."
—J. L. Wolleson, Perry, Oklahoma.

"I used Cascarets for insomnia, with which I have been afflicted for twenty years. They gave me immediate relief."—Thos. Gillard, Elgin, Ill.

"Cascarets are the only remedy I have ever used that cause a fine, easy movement of the bowels without impairing the functions of the stomach."
—Chas. S. Campbell, Sunbury, Pennsylvania.

Business as well as social life of today is one of strain and effort, and the struggle for existence in competition makes life a fight day in day out, in which care of body, nerves, blood is more or less neglected. Men wonder what's wrong with them. No man can stand such unnatural conditions unless he counteracts them by using Cascarets Candy Cathartic, causing regularity of body in spite of irregularity of habits. A man who "feels bad" should take Cascarets, find out what's wrong and be cured.

SPRING IS HERE.

While the Northwest (from the Eastern point of view) is covered with deep snows and the Southeast is deluged with floods and rain storms that stop traffic and cause enormous loss, the weather smiles like a footlight favorite in California. The warm breath of Spring is upon the land. The emerald tints now predominate in the landscape, and the mellow sunshine beams on the woods and fields. In the rippling streams the trout are leaping, and the singing of the waters calls to the angler like the syren melody of Lorelei. The almonds and cherries are in full bloom, and the pale green of the willows makes vernal the margin of the brooks. Wild flowers lend their varied coloring to the landscape. On the hillsides there are great splashes of color, where the beds of golden poppy break in bloom. The cock quail has dropped his winter note and is piping the softer strain of love to his mate in the other copse. The bees are humming, the birds are singing, and all Nature is putting on the gauds and garlands of the vernal season.

But the East is still in the icy grasp of winter or is cowering before tornadoes. The contrast shows what a favored land this California of ours is.

John H. Reagan, the last survivor of Jefferson Davis' Cabinet, is ill, but is said to be recovering. He is eighty-three years of age, and has been almost continuously in office for sixty years. All the members of Lincoln's Cabinet are dead, and nearly all of Reagan's contemporaries in the fifties have passed away. Calusha A. Grow of Pennsylvania is the principal survivor. But Reagan still holds on to life. He is president of the Texas Railroad Commission, a position he resigned from the United States Senate to accept. Reagan is noted as the author of the Inter-State Commerce law, though as it stands it is greatly modified from what it was when originally introduced.

It is quite evident that the Democratic opposition to the Frye Shipping Bill is perfunctory. They know the bill is bound to pass, and are merely trying to lay the groundwork for political capital in the next campaign.

General Methuen's disaster is now ascribed to the American mules stampeding. The mule knows his business and the Boers know the mule. The combination is a bad one.

CIGARETTE SETS BED CLOTHING ON FIRE

Edward Troy and R. Macy, two insurance brokers, were badly burned last night in their apartments, corner of Eleventh and Broadway, while asleep. The bed clothing caught fire from the stump of a cigarette which Troy had been smoking to induce sleep. Troy's hands were burned and Macey's side was blistered.

The fire was put out before any other damage had been done.

THE RAGTIME MUSE.

TALE OF THE FLATWIFE.

She notes the gas range is defective,
wasteful and not up to date;
She says that the walls and the woodwork are in a most terrible state.

She loudly complains that of closets there is a deplorable lack,
And wonders how she has put up with the cramp and the dust and the clack.

She wails that the plumbing's old-fashioned;
the bath-room, by rights, should be tile.
An dthat the whole decoration and finishing's wanting in style.

She pulls the whole place all to pieces, all the way from the back to the front,
And pats on her cloak and her hat and starts out on her annual hunt;

Wondering still, as she wanders forth on her flat-hunting way,
How she will manage to live in that hole till the first day of May.

Meanwhile a sweet sister woman, beholding the sign "To Let," Looks at the flat and declares it by far is the loveliest yet.

And still the more she inspects it does her satisfaction increase,
So she is not happy until she has written her name on the lease.

Meantime flatwife No. 1, it's not very unlikely, will choose,
After a search long-protracted, of ideal flats, No. 2's.

All of which might an observer impress
as a thing passing strange,
Did he not know that the one thing we love above all is a change.

TWO MEN CHARGED WITH ROBBERY

Marina Wilson and Richard Leahy have been taken into custody by the police on the charge of highway robbery. They are accused of having held up and beaten T. Cozzens early Sunday morning at the corner of Third and Jackson streets.

Cozzens claims to have been beaten into insensibility and then robbed of $2.

The police believe they have enough evidence against the two men to convict them.

BROMLEY FILES AN OPINION.

City Expert R. P. Bromley has filed an opinion, written by Attorney A. L. Black, with the Mayor in reference to his controversy concerning the City Auditor's office. The Mayor will not take any action on the opinion, because it is contrary to that given by City Attorney Johnson.

HELD UP AND BADLY BEATEN.

ROBBERS ATTACK JAS. BODGE OF SAN LEANDRO AND BREAK TWO RIBS.

SAN LEANDRO, March 17.—James Bodge a well known resident of this place was held up Saturday evening by four young men and was robbed of $6.40. He was terribly beaten up by the robbers. His face was beaten to a jelly and two ribs were broken.

The unfortunate man was removed to his home and the case was reported to the town marshal.

This morning four young men were arrested on a charge of robbery. They are: Frank Burnett, Joe Cladio, Thos. Galvan, and Joseph Dease. They are accused of being the young men who assaulted Bodge. They were released from prison by putting up $1,000 bail each.

LIFTED TOURAINE HOTEL SILVER

John Haston, formerly an employe of the Hotel Touraine, was arrested Saturday evening by a patrolman on the charge of having stolen silverware from the hotel.

The manager of the place has missed valuable dishes and silverware for some time, but was unable to detect the person who took them, although a close watch was kept.

Suspicion finally rested on Hoston and his arrest followed. Hoston is alleged to have appropriated upward of $60 worth of silverware.

Six months ago Hoston was arrested on a charge of carrying concealed weapons. At that time the police believed him to be a dangerous character.

BERKELEY BOYS ON TRACK.

EASTERN TRACK TEAM TRYING TO BREAK INTO CONDITION.

BERKELEY, Mar. 17.—With a week's sunshine the improvement of the Eastern track team has been very noticeable. The staleness of six months inactivity has worn off from the athletes and something like form regained.

Cadogan, the crack sprinter, has been starting better this year than any previous time. He has been a consistent performer in every time and it is not at all improbable that in contest this year the watch will register less than 10 seconds in the 100 yards.

In event of Cadogan failing to make good Brown is ready to make good. He is easily a 10 second man providing Cadogan is not running. By entering these two sprinters in one intercollegiate field day, the Blue and Gold feels reasonably safe in the 100 and 220 yard dashes.

Redwell and Service are also performing well in the distances. Ligda is training for the quarter mile dash and has recently shown a disposition to adhere to the training rules of Trainer Christie more strictly than in the past.

Final Tryout in the Tennis Games.

BERKELEY, Mar. 17.—The final tryout in tennis was held on the University courts last Saturday and resulted in a victory for R. G. Hunt and A. Baker over F. L. Brown and J. D. McGavin. The score was 6-4, 6-3, 6-1.

The playing of Hunt was especially brilliant and entitles him to consideration as one of the best individual players on the coast.

Hunt and Baker will represent the Blue and Gold in the intercollegiate doubles with Stanford.

'VARSITY BASEBALL TEAM WINS GAME.

BERKELEY, Mar. 17.—The 'Varsity baseball nine defeated the Olympic team last Saturday on the college diamond by a score of 11 to 6.

The game was snappy and reflected the improvement the 'Varsity nine has undergone during the last week of good weather.

The features of the game were the home runs of Brady of the University and Gammon of the Olympics.

CLAD HAND FOR TWO POLICEMEN

They Get Credit for Doing Their Duty Catching Burglars.

Chief of Police Hodgkins this morning sent out the following letters:

"Oakland, Cal., March 17, 1902.

"John Turner, Regular Police Officer: Sir—It is expected at all times that members of the Police Department shall perform their full duty with courage and intelligence, and no officer should expect praise or commendation for so doing, yet there are occasions when in the performance of duty officers show that courage and zeal that calls forth not alone the praise and appreciation of their superiors in office, but of the citizens we have the honor to serve.

"In the case of the arrest of Albert Grose for burglary, you displayed that promptness and ability that commends our appreciation, and I desire upon the part of the Police Department of this city to compliment you upon the manner in which you performed your duty in this instance. Very respectfully,

"S. C. HODGKINS,
"Chief of Police."

"In the case of the arrest of James Halliday for burglary, you and your associate, Special Officer A. T. Ayers, have displayed that courage and vigilance that commends our appreciation, and I desire upon the part of the Police Department of this city to compliment you upon the manner in which you have performed your duty in this instance.

OLD LIGHTHOUSE MAY COLLAPSE

Secretary Recommends That $19,000 Be Spent on Oakland Harbor Light.

A dispatch from Washington says:

"The Secretary of the Treasury today recommended an appropriation of $19,000 for a new light and fog signal station at Oakland. Recent examination by the Directors of the Lighthouse Board revealed that the piling under the present light at the entrance to the jetties had deteriorated to such an extent that collapse was liable to occur at any time. It was also found that the fog bell now in use is inadequate to the needs of navigation.

"The shipping interests of Oakland harbor," writes Secretary Shaw, "have reached large proportions in recent years and the number of steamers, sailing vessels, ferry boats and tugs passing in and out of the harbor is constantly increasing."

The Lighthouse Board, at its meeting, March 3d, decided to recommend that $19,000 be appropriated, which will rebuild the light station and furnish a new fog bell weighing 4,000 pounds. The new station will be placed on the end of the jetty, just outside of the present station. Prompt action is urged by Secretary Shaw.

PROF. WALLACE'S LECTURE.

Professor J. T. Wallace of the City Council will address the Pilgrim Brotherhood in the parlors of Pilgrim Church on Tuesday evening. His theme will be "Does Honesty Pay In Municipal Politics."

Don't Get Excited

With all the different piano sales in progress and startling headlines in the newspapers you are liable to get excited and lose your head. Don't do it. You are liable to lose money if you do. Keep cool. There is no necessity for any rush in the matter. No law compels you to buy a piano in ten minutes, and it isn't using good judgment to do so. Take more time, and before closing a deal on a "sale" piano call at our warerooms and examine our line, and you will then understand why we sell more pianos than any other house in Oakland. In the way of special bargains we will offer several slightly used Uprights from $75 to $247.50 on our easy payment plan, if desired. We also offer twenty Square pianos at $25 and upwards on installments of from $2 per month and upwards. We offer Square pianos on ridiculously low installments to make room for a large shipment of elegant new Uprights to arrive direct from the factories.

"WHITE SLAVE" AT THE MACDONOUGH

INTERESTING PROGRAMS AT THE DEWEY AND AT PECK'S BROADWAY.

"The White Slave" is scheduled for tonight at the Macdonough Theater.

Bartley Campbell's great play is good enough to have made the reputation of any playwright. The originality displayed in "My Partner," the charm of "The Galley Slave" and the dramatic surprises contained in "Siberia" are all surpassed in "The White Slave."

The writing of this play was to Mr. Campbell a labor of love. He had lived in the South, and wrote without a suspicion of prejudice on the subject of slavery. His knowledge of human nature made it an easy task for him to picture the every day life of the Southern people. He made a hero of a Kentucky bred boy and the true nobility of his characters prove his tender regard for the people of the Southland.

"The White Slave" corrected the errors of Mrs. Stowe's in "Uncle Tom's Cabin" and those of Dion Boucicault in contributing "The Octoroon" to the stage.

Bartley Campbell was as much a poet as a playwright; the language employed in telling his tale is far above the average.

"The White Slave" demands a luxurious setting; the scenic grandeur of the lower Mississippi valley is graphically set forth. There is a plantation scene with several choruses, arranged with telling effect, and the destruction by fire of a steamboat by a rain storm, followed by a view of Red Devil Island.

Never in its history has "The White Slave" been interpreted by a company including so many favorably known players.

Bartley Campbell selected Charles Webster for the field nigger "Clem" in the first "White Slave" production. Mr. Webster continued in the same part for over two thousand times, and was secured for the big revival of the play this season.

He says he never tires of it because the character is so true to life that it does not seem like acting at all.

AT THE DEWEY.

"Faust" is to be produced at the Dewey Theater tonight, and as several weeks have been spent in preparation, there will doubtless be a very elaborate production. Landers Stevens as "Mephistophles" is at the head of the cast, and is supported by the strongest company that has ever been gathered at the Dewey. This great piece will be staged with all the richness and attention to detail that the weird tale of "Faust" demands and undoubtedly next week will witness another of the Dewey's many triumphs under its present management.

PECK'S BROADWAY.

At Peck's Broadway Theater tonight, a new program will be presented. It will include Eddie Higgins, a black female impersonator; Billy Bryant a black-face impersonator; Black Patti, who is unexcelled in her line as a vocalist. Al Clift the distinguished comedian, together with a number of the most recently prepared moving pictures. The bill will remain on the boards all this week.

JAMES NEILL COMING.

James Neill the eminent actor will appear at the Macdonough Theater next Wednesday evening in the famous old play "Barbara Freitchie." He will be supported by a talented company of artists. Mr. Neill is well known throughout the country as a clever actor.

NEWS NOTES FROM TOWN OF FRUITVALE

FRUITVALE, March 17.—The King's Daughters of the Fruitvale Chapel, will meet this week at the church parlors and elect officers for the ensuing year. The ladies will also talk over and probably arrange for a number of entertainments to be given this year.

OLD TRACK REMOVED.

The old street car track, owned by the Oakland, San Leandro and Haywards road, which extended from Fourth street down to the Southern Pacific tracks on Fruitvale avenue, has been torn up and the road graded where the track used to be. Their rails and pieces of ties have been removed to Elmhurst power station.

STORE PAINTED.

George R. Warren's drug store is receiving a fine new coat of paint throughout the interior. A new arrangement of the store is also being made owing to the change recently made by Postmaster Lund in the size of his office, which occupies the same building.

BARNUM'S DOORS HAVE CLOSED.

THERE WILL BE A LIVELY CONTEST OVER THE NAME OF RESTAURANT.

What's in a name? Anyone curious to know will find out by attending the auction sale of Barnum's restaurant next Friday. The creditors will put everything under the hammer, including the name.

Tony Paggi, the last of the Bonifaces who has from time to time presided over the famous hostelry, begged to be allowed to take the name and the good will it implies, but the creditors were inexorable. The name possesses a money value, for who has not heard of "Barnum's" and the good cheer for which it was celebrated? Though evil days have come upon the old place, still the ancient name carries a significance.

Leon Faure, formerly mine host of the Hermitage now a memory of departed days, has leased the old quarters for six years, depositing $1,000 to bind the contract. He wants to retain the old name, but Tony Paggi says nay. He vows that Faure will have to pay through the nose if he wants the old sign of "Barnum's" to hang above his door.

The creditors will get the benefit of the bidding.

Saturday evening Tony Paggi celebrated his last day as landlord of "Barnum's" by giving a little dinner to a few choice spirits, old habitues of the place. He had given up the fight, unable to meet the demands of creditors, but with the last course served there lingered the savor of good cooking and the bouquet of old wine. Tony and his friends feasted, drank, sang and were gay in the spirit of the text, "Eat, drink and be merry for tomorrow we may die!" When the last song had been sung, a last flagon was drunk to the days of old, and the doors of "Barnum's" were closed finally by the old regime.

All the furniture, fixtures, etc., will be sold, as well as the name and good will, for Faure has only leased the building and grounds. Max Marcuse will conduct the sale for the creditors.

THIEVES AT WORK AT ELMHURST

ELMHURST, March 17.—A chicken thief has been plying his trade quite successfully in this place within the past few weeks. Several chicken roosts have been entered and a number of fowls removed. An effort has been made to trap the robber, but with no success. The method used by the thief in entering coops is quite common among robbers of that sort. He merely twists the staple to which the padlock is fastened to the door; or if the door is locked with a door lock, the thing is pried open with a jimmy.

HAS RETURNED.

Mrs. J. A. Kane, with her infant daughter, has returned to her home in Elmhurst, after a five months' visit at Randolia, Iowa.

TOOK THE HINT.

Friend Told Him to Change His Food.

Once in a while one can serve a friend and win a life-long obligation by a little food advice. This is worth while. "Very thankful I was to a friend for his advice when he told me about Grape-Nuts Breakfast Food at the time I was suffering. My stomach trouble originally came from neglect of colds which caused catarrh of the stomach, then followed misery from dyspepsia, headache, loss of vitality and flesh.

"Last August a friend in discussing my health said if I would change my food and take Grape-Nuts instead of any other food or medicine for one week he would guarantee that I would be greatly improved and feel like a new man.

"He was so positive that I concluded to try it, and, as I said, I am exceeding thankful to him. In a week's time I lost the heavy, dead feeling in my head, nausea had ceased and the action of my general system had greatly improved.

"I have stuck fast to Grape-Nuts. Now I weigh nine pounds more and am steadily improving. Grape-Nuts has a most exhilarating effect on the system and makes one feel bright and alive, as though they were well nourished as a healthy man should be.

"The price or Grape-Nuts is within reach of all, but I consider it worth its weight in gold." John Haywood, 3931 Aspen street, Philadelphia, Pa.

SOME CLIPPINGS ABOUT CALIFORNIA

An Interesting Pamphlet Is Issued by the Burlington Road.

A pamphlet styled "California Clippings" has just made its appearance. It is published by the C. B. and Q. R. R. Co. It is practical and unique and shows in every detail the experienced mind of John Francis, the general passenger agent, of what is popularly known as the "Burlington Route." It contains cuttings regarding the C. B. and Q. from leading papers in this State. A more effective scheme of advertising the road could not be devised. There is not a superfluous word in the book and there is not anything in the way of exaggeration touching the equipment and accomplishment of the road. The management of the Burlington for years has been and is at this time one of the most prudent, practical and progressive in the country. These facts, together with the capacity, carefulness and caution of the employes, the excellence of the equipment and the unfailing regularity with which its trains leave from and arrive at the terminals are set forth in so attractive a manner that they may be read with as much interest as would be read the chapters in a novelette.

The Burlington route is a connecting line between the East and West, and is represented by W. D. Sanborn, general agent, at 631 Market street, San Francisco.

CHINESE TRIES TO KISS A GIRL

MRS. SPEEDY APPEALS TO THE COURT TO PUNISH AH SING.

ALAMEDA, March 17.—A peculiar case was brought to light in Judge Morris' court today.

Late Saturday afternoon Ah Sing, a Chinese vegetable peddler was arrested on a charge of disturbing the peace. The complaint was made by Mrs. Speedy who resides at 855 Cedar street. It appears that on Saturday afternoon Marion Speedy, the fourteen-year-old daughter of Mrs. Speedy was accosted by the Chinese vegetable peddler, who attempted to kiss the child. The man came up behind the little girl and seizing her by the arm he asked the child for a kiss. The girl struggled to get away but the Chinese clung to her arm at the same time calling her pet names in broken English. Finding that the child would not give him a kiss the man attempted bargaining. He offered her $5 for a kiss and the little girl snobbishly refused and begged to be released.

Finally the Chinaman became alarmed and dropped the girl's arm and she ran quickly to her home. The Police Department was informed of the affair. Within a short time the police secured the man whom the child at once identified as the person who had attempted to kiss her. The Chinaman was taken before Justice Morris when he pleaded not guilty to the charge. His bail was set at $10 cash, which amount he deposited and was allowed to go.

The entire neighborhood in which the Speedy family reside is aroused and it would go hard with Ah Sing should he appear in that district before the affair is forgotten.

This is the second attack made by Chinese on small girls in this city within the past six months.

In the night of our sorrow
we think of the day
When sunshine and gladness made lightsome our way,
When the saints and the sages of Erin's Green Isle
Shed the light of their faith on the savage and vile.

Now the shrine of our freedom lies low in decay;
Our hopes, though still buoyant, have oft felt dismay,
And in Tara's lone hall, where our kings once held state,
Moaning winds sweep through tenantless halls of the great,

And our harp now is mute save to grieving's low tone,
All alone and unheeded our poets may moan,
For ruin has swept over dear Innisfail
Since the Saxon has lived in the halls of the Gael.

Green gem of the ocean, let caitiffs deny
Their language and land who enslaved wish to die,
But, uncrushed by oppression, unfettered by chains,
We fling back defiance—our country remains!

And the wrongs of our race, our unheeded complaints,
We shall never forget, dear old island of saints,
Till thy soil, rendered sacred by saint and by bard,
Can in freedom exult and its fetters discard.

CANNERY WILL BUILD COTTAGES

MANY IMPROVEMENTS BEING MADE IN THE PLANT AT SAN LEANDRO.

SAN LEANDRO, March 17.—I. H. Morris has recently leased the piece of land west of the cannery to the California Fruit Canner's Association, which will erect on the property about thirty-two small cottages for the use of the people employed in the cannery during the summer. Already the ground is being cleared of trees and within a short time work on the cottages will be started. These cottages will be quite small, but will be arranged with a view to the convenience of the occupants.

The importance of the San Leandro cannery is yearly becoming more pronounced. Improvements are being made every season and the cannery will soon be as large as any in the county. This year the main building will be somewhat enlarged and a number of improvements will be made. There will also be added a number of smaller buildings, and improvements will be made on the warehouse. Preparations are now being made for the season, which will soon be opened with the canning of vegetables. Arrangements for more help in the main building are being made, as the season promises to be one of the heaviest witnessed in many years.

A "LEFT HAND SOCIAL."

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist Church is arranging for a novel social, which will be given at the residence of Mrs. A. Johnson, Haywards avenue, on Thursday evening, March 20th. The affair will be known as a "left hand social," and will include a unique program, the nature of which the ladies will not disclose until the evening of the affair. During the evening refreshments will be served.

ERECTED FLAG POLE.

A twenty-foot flag pole with a twelve-foot flag has been erected on the dwelling of Rev J. M. Woodman. Colonel F. S. Hastings, a flag enthusiast, who presented the town with its handsome large pole, supervised the work. The Colonel's greatest delight is to see the American flag flung to the breeze, and it is his hope that every house in San Leandro will some day own a flag pole and flag.

HAD AN ACCIDENT.

Joseph E. Cordeiro, while working on the Costa building recently, met with a very painful and dangerous accident. He ran a rusty nail into his hand a distance of an inch and a half. On the following day, after the accident, Cordeiro's arm began to swell in a frightful manner and before night it was found necessary to lance the hand. For a while it was thought that blood poisoning might set in, but after several days it began to improve. Dr. Miller, who has the case in charge, reports the man out of danger.

FOR COMMUTATION TICKETS

It is expected that within a short time the commutation tickets will again be sold in Haywards. They will be restored in Elmhurst April 1st. Some time ago G. S. Langan received a communication from F. C. Havens of the Oakland Transit Company, requesting him to circulate a petition among a few of the principal business men of Haywards; the petition to be addressed to the Oakland Transit Company officials requesting them to again sell commutation tickets between here and Oakland. The communication also requested that a number of the leading citizens communicate the same request by letter to the company. This was done. Mr. Langan drew up a petition and it was signed by a few business men and forwarded to San Francisco. Several prominent citizens also wrote personal requests to the company. This procedure was taken in Elmhurst and San Leandro and the result was that Mr. Havens directed Rev. E. E. Clark to announce that after April 1st the tickets would again be sold.

CONFERRED ORIENTAL DEGREE.

Saturday night the degree team from Cypress Camp, Woodmen of the World, went to Mt. Eden, where it conferred the "Oriental Degree of Humility" upon a class of fifty members of the Mt. Eden Camp.

The affair was one of the most interesting ever witnessed by the Mt. Eden Woodmen, who were present in a body to see the fun. The committee from that lodge that had charge of the affair was H. Meininger, H. Gansberger, J. Robinson, August Eden, and J. H. Gading.

A number of prominent Oakland Woodmen were present, as well as members from many different towns in this county. Following the business of the evening, a banquet was held, after which there was dancing.

VETERANS ENJOY A NIGHT OF PLEASURE.

Many Addresses at Smoker of the Army and Navy League.

The Army and Navy Republican League, No. 3, gave a successful "smoker" in Becker's Hall Saturday evening. The hall was appropriately decorated with flags and red, white and blue streamers were stretched from the center of the building to the corners of the hall. In the center was hung a full dinner pail.

The floor space was covered with long tables holding coffee, hardtack and fruit. At each plate there was also a clay pipe and plenty of tobacco.

The affair was opened by those present singing, "Marching Through Georgia," after which Chairman John W. Bulen recognized Commander Geo. W. Hoguet, who read an address dealing with the late unpleasantness in regard to the "smoker," an account of which appeared several days ago in these columns. Following is Commander Hoguet's address:

HOGUET SPEAKS.

"Comrades—No man can say much in five minutes on any subject. However, I wish to thank everyone for his presence here tonight. This 'smoker' is a great success, I am glad to say. I knew it would be. I regret to say that there are a few Veterans in Oakland who are jealous of this meeting tonight. They belong to that class which wants to rule or ruin everything they have a hand in. They tried to run the organization of which I am the Colonel. They are great liars, villifiers and traducers of character. In fact they are regular slot-machine politicians. They hang around candidates and try to make them believe that they hold the soldier vote in their vest pockets. Let me tell you that no man holds the vote of my camp in his pocket. We don't proposed to be muzzled any longer in order that a 'peewee' three may hold good positions, while we eat soup; no indeed, that day has gone by; and because we wouldn't let two or three 'old soaks' run our camp to suit certain candidates, they rebelled.

HATES HYPOCRITES.

"This organization is composed of clean people, men who would not stoop to sell each other's vote in order to get a petty office or to make office holders think there was only one man fit to hold office. I hate a sneak. I despise a lying hypocrite. I have supreme contempt for a man or any set of men who will take a vow to be a friend of veterans and then play traitor to them and try by all foul means possible to bring disgrace and reproach upon their good name.

"With these few remarks I will close, by saying that our Republican Army and Navy League is in better condition to do politics this year than ever. Faithful and loyal members know who their friends are and when the time comes to do active politics, it will be done with intelligence and courage. This meeting has demonstrated who are our friends. The letters we didn't receive show clearly who it is that do not want our votes. We will not forget this fact. No candidate will get our votes who does not think enough of us to visit our Camp or recognize us by letter. And lastly, whenever you hear any soldier denounce our work, you can rest assured that when we look at the books we will find that he is a national sponger and a man who has not contributed one cent to the organization." (Applause.)

OTHER ADDRESSES.

After Mr. Bulen had rendered several selections on the violin, Commander-in-Chief Myers was called upon for a few words. He said in part:

"Mr. Chairman and Comrades: It affords me great pleasure to address you tonight, but I am glad that I have been limited to five minutes, as I am a man of action rather than words. Looking over the faces of those before me, and thier sprightly actions tonight, I would not call them Veterans, but rather Sons of Veterans. As a I said before, I am no orator, so I ask you to excuse me."

There being some members present from other cities, they were called upon for a few words. One was Railroad Commissioner E. B. Edson of Siskiyou, who said in part:

"Comrades: It gives me great gratification to be with you tonight, and listen to your expressions. I also want to thank you on behalf of one of our comrades in Siskiyou, for the effort you put forth when he was to have been put out of office. Greatly to you does he owe his now being in office."

FROM THE SOUTH.

Mr. Reed of Southern California spoke a few words. He said he believed in employing all the old soldiers. He said that he once held a position where he was the means of employing eleven men, seven of whom were old soldiers, and he had found them trustworthy in every respect.

Mr. Ginley said he was always glad to get into a crowd of old soldiers. He said he had been an active member for a number of years, but as yet had never held an office in the organization. He thought that the old soldiers deserved more credit than they were receiving.

Several others expressed themselves as glad to be present, among them being Judge S. P. Hall, E. M. Gibson, E. B. Edson, J. E. McElrath, C. L. Pierce, Dr. Stout and State Treasurer Reeves.

CANTEENS UNCORKED.

"I now call your attention to something that, in the years of '61-'65 you would have given $10, yes, $100, many a day to have partaken of. I refer to the spread before you. Uncork your canteens, boys, and commence."

During the course of the proceedings, Mr. Calderwood read a telegram from Gov. Gage saying that official business interfered with his being present in person, but that he would be present in spirit. Mr. Calderwood also announced that Dr. George C. Pardee was ill in bed or he would otherwise be present. Several other letters were read, the writers expressing regret at not being able to be present.

Humorist Joe Healy was then invited to the platform. Mr. Healy is a humorist of ability and kept the audience in a laughing humor all the time he had the floor.

THE CAMPAIGN.

Mr. Calderwood read a resolution to the effect that a meeting should be held in May in regard to the political issues of the coming election. Some of the members were in favor of holding it in August or September. They gave as their reasons that if the meeting were held at an earlier date they would be forgotten by the "slate makers." It was suggested that that was usually the case anyhow.

Mr. Calderwood thought that then was the time to make known how they stood, not to wait until the "slate" had been "fixed." He thought that they should demand their just rights and not get "cold feet."

A general discussion followed and it looked for a time as though trouble was brewing. It was finally decided to substitute the month of May for April and then take a vote on it.

In its amended form the resolution was, with one emphatic "no," carried. Therefore the meeting at which the demands of the League will be made will be held in May.

THOMPSON'S ADDRESS.

Thomas J. Thompson, a returned soldier from the Philippines, who is engaged in organizing the soldiers of the Spanish-American war, was called upon. He said that the boys of the last war had the advantage of their older comrades in the fact of their being heroes of two wars, while the older soldiers had only participated in one. He also said that the old soldiers should demand their rights that they fought for. He said the old and young should get together and in unity demand their just dues.

Judge John Ellsworth said that a man had in his opinion three duties that he should faithfully carry out. The first one was the defense of his country's flag, the second his family and politics—which two he said went together—and third, the right of examining the public acts of public men.

SHORTRIDGE SPEAKS.

The tall form of Samuel Shortridge was discovered in the doorway, and demands were made for a speech. Mr. Shortridge said that if he could be allowed the privilege of something to eat first, he would make an address afterwards. This modest request was granted him.

While Mr. Shortridge was seeking wise words, in a plate of beans and a cup of coffee, "Rally 'round the Flag" was sung by all present, accompanied by the piano and violin, but when it came to the chorus, the noise made by the singers made it impossible to hear the musicians.

Mr. Shortridge, having finished his repast, took the restrum and delivered an unusually interesting talk. Briefly he reviewed the Civil War, and spoke flatteringly of the heroes it developed, and said that if he had his way about it he would suspend civil service rules for a period of thirty days, gather together all the veterans he could find, place them in office and then put the rules in force again. He thought that the fruits of victory belonged to the ones who fought for it.

The speaker then discussed the last Presidential election and said during the campaign he had made the statement that California would go McKinley for 20,000. He noticed that some Democratic leaders who were present looked amazed at his statement, but time showed that his estimate was a most modest one. Mr. Shortridge said that he knew there were some people who loved him for his beauty only, but he said that notwithstanding some of the things said during the evening, they were still doing politics in San Francisco.

Mr. Shortridge declared that he would give nineteen years of his life to have a chance to answer "that man Tilden of South Carolina." The speaker dwelt on what a power Uncle Sam had become. He said that, when Uncle Sam went to an international dance, instead of being a wall flower, as heretofore, he now led the cotillion. When Uncle Sam smiled, they smirked; when he frowned, they did him homage.

At the close of Mr. Shortridge's address, all joined in singing "America," after which the meeting was adjourned.

The following are among those who were visitors:

Major Myers, commander-in-chief; J. M. Bailey, adjutant-general; D. McGinlay, post colonel of San Jose; Truman Reeves, State Treasurer; E. B. Edson, Railroad Commissioner; T. C. Mastellar, ex-commander, and E. W. Woodward.

During the evening one of the Japanese lanterns composing part of the decorations caught fire, but was extinguished before any damage was done.

DEATH SUMMONS EDWARD HERRICK

WELL KNOWN LUMBER MERCHANT PASSES AWAY AT HIS HOME.

After an illness of many months Edward M. Herrick, president of the Pacific Pine Company of San Francisco and one of the most prominent lumber dealers on the Pacific Coast, died yesterday afternoon at his residence, 2081 Webster street.

Mr. Herrick had suffered from ill health for a long time, but he had been at his business almost constantly until last Wednesday, when his condition became serious.

The decedent was born in October, 1818, at Elizabeth, N. J., and spent the earlier years of his life in the East. In 1873 he came to California and immediately associated himself with the late G. A. Meigs, an uncle and prominent pioneer, in the lumber business. After Mr. Meigs' death Mr. Herrick continued in the general lumber business under his own name, his son, Lester Herrick, being associated with him.

In 1888 Mr. Herrick conceived the plan of uniting the great pine lumber interests. He was the organizer and the executive head of the Pacific Pine Lumber Company, which at that time controlled the pine trade. He was elected president and remained for eleven years the active head of the corporation until the Pacific Pine Company was formed in 1899 as the original company's successor. Mr. Herrick then became president of that organization and remained so until his death.

The deceased was also president of the Grays Harbor Commercial Company of Washington, and of the Robertson Raft Company, which is engaged in handling piles and logs by rafting. He was one of the active members and directors of the new Merchants' Exchange.

Mr. Herrick's home had been in Oakland since 1875. Eighteen years ago he erected the residence where he died.

The surviving members of the family are the wife and two sons, Lester and George A. Herrick. The funeral will be held Tuesday afternoon at 12:30 o'clock from the residence. The services will be of the simplest character. According to Mr. Herrick's expressed desire, the body will be incinerated at Cypress Lawn.

TELLS OF VALUE OF A CLEAN LIFE

PRES. DAVID STARR JORDAN LECTURES AT THE Y. M. C. A. HALL.

President David Starr Jordan of Stanford University, spoke at the Y. M. C. A. yesterday on the subject "Value of a Clean Life." He spoke in part as follows:

"I have never in the course of my life found an out and out criminal. Nearly all men are born with good spirits, but they are also born weak. They were not capable of saying no. The criminals that I have known had gone wrong from the simple inability to say no to the weaknesses and trials that beset the inner man.

"The only difference between a good man and a bad one is the difference in their sins. 'I know now,' said a besotted old miser when a child walked bravely up to him and put out his hand—'I know now how Jesus likened the soul of a child unto the kingdom of God. A child is like God because it does not know sin, but also is it unlike in that it has never had to visit sin.'

"Nearly all the vices of men come from an endeavor on their part to take short cuts to happiness. Now happiness is a virtue that we know because it makes way for more happiness and comes without reaction. Pleasure, to speak figuratively, leaves a dark brown taste in the mouth. It gives immediate enjoyment, but in the giving and acceptance the power of enjoying is gone. Happiness is like an electric glow which permeates the system. You cannot be happy without doing. It is impossible to be happy and to keep still at the same time. Let me say that pain is not necessarily the opposite of happiness. It is the best thing we have in that it is nature's warning to the fact that something is wrong. Physicians realize that a disease without pain is far more dangerous than one with pain. If it does not hurt, the patient fails to take nature's warning. Nor is sorrow a thing we would forget. Sorrow has to do with those we love, but misery does only with ourselves. When a man is miserable he is simply being informed by nature that he has been going cross-lots and that he must be held to account. As I have said, the point of all happiness is to get on in a definite, clean way. When one takes a short cut, then comes the trouble. The hopelessly rich and the hopelessly poor are both placed in the circumstances of being the creatures of unearned happiness.

"The one has no reason for earning, the other is too far gone to care to earn. Thus they find that idleness is the open door through which all vices enter. If a boy can be kept at work he is pretty sure to make a success.

"The temptation of gambling is a short cut. It has been said that money is the root of all evil. The wise man who said that meant that unearned money was the evil; not money itself.

"The evil is getting something for nothing. Money means power, and a man has a right to want money. It is a part of his duty when he is young to lay some of it by that he may have power when he is old. There are very few people who can get a legacy and not be injured by it. Horse racing in itself is a good thing, but the gambling that attends it is the effect of endeavoring to get something for nothing.

"Another means of short cut is through vulgarity. It is the faculty of being satisfied with poor things. It is vulgar to enjoy ragtime music when you can appreciate better and it is to be had; It is vulgar to enjoy the literature we see in the Sunday newspapers when our minds are capable of something better and that something is to be had. This sort of thing is distinctly lowering. Vulgarity, when we consider it in its fullest sense, is a short cut to happiness, and its continued practice is liable to hold the man to the idea of nothing better.

"Of all the vices, obscenity is one of the most destructive to enjoyment. Men who indulge in foul stories and remarks know that they are cutting off from themselves the power to enjoy higher things. The greater part of the unemployed are not placed there because of drink, but because their minds are stamped with the image of things that places them on their proper level. An outgrowth of this evil is that of profanity. Not that it hurts God—He is used to it and understands—but that it hurts the man. There are times when a swear would straighten out things as nothing else. This is so in the high Sierras, when every one, the mules, the driver and the passenger, are benefited; but to swear at home or fill your mouth with oath after oath on the streets does not leave very much man.

"Licentiousness is the most common cut to happiness. The greatest power for things of life come through love. When a man loves a woman he takes upon himself the responsibility of what her life should be, and when the children come there should be love and responsibility from the parent for them. But when one endeavors to take the pleasures of love and shake off the responsibility, the world judges him harshly, and be, sooner or later, must become a consummate scoundrel."

SHE WILL GO BACK TO STAGE

CAMILLE D'ARVILLE DOES NOT LIKE THE QUIET OF HOME LIFE.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 17.—The San Francisco Chronicle yesterday printed the following:

For the reason that life off the stage is commonplace, Miss Camille d'Arville has decided to return to the world of grease-paint, footlights, press agents, and the discomfort of one-night stands. After one whole year of quiet domestic existence, during which time she turned down a good many propositions looking to her desertion of the family circle, Miss d'Arville has decided to appear in public again, and her decision has been applauded by the large circle of friends she has in San Francisco. In private life Miss d'Arville is Mrs. Ernest Willard Crellin, and her husband is a very wealthy man. They have been a most devoted couple, and their home in this city has been the Occidental Hotel.

Yesterday Miss d'Arville made known her intention to return to the stage, and a great many friends called to express their gratification. She seemed to be as happy over the matter as a school girl on a holiday, and when asked why she was going back to the stage, she said:

"I simply cannot resist the fascination of the footlights, and I have just my husband's consent to let me go back to them. He is going away on an extended business trip, and I have decided to devote that time to an operatic tour. He is the best husband in the world, and he has opposed my return to the stage up to the very last moment. Men never understand such things. But I have convinced him that I cannot be wholly happy in retirement, and he says I may have a year or two more on the stage. I cannot tell you how glad I am to get back. It really seems as though I were beginning my life over again. No woman could have enjoyed better domestic conditions than mine, but a sedate home life is not for me—at least not just yet. I love the stage, and the hardships of an actress' life are simply alluring incidents that I have dreamed of during the past twelve months."

Asked about her immediate plans, Miss d'Arville said: "I shall appear first in Detroit on the 31st of this month, and will then go East on an extended tour of the vaudeville houses. When that is over I shall return to San Francisco, and I expect to appear here during the summer. Next winter I will make a tour of the whole country in a brand new comic opera, about which I cannot tell you anything now. It is written and composed by young Americans, and I am confident from what I have heard that it will give me just the opportunity I have been looking for ever since I first planned to go back on the stage."

Miss d'Arville met with a painful accident a few days ago. A friend sent her a bunch of wild flowers, and there was a spray of poison ivy in it. She lifted the flowers to her face, and the result is a very unpleasant one. At Mrs. Fisk's concert yesterday she wore three veils, and she will not appear in public again until she starts East.
